1 Corinthians 9:24-27 Do you not know that in a race all the runners run their very best to win, but only one receives the prize? Run your race in such a way that you may seize the prize and make it yours! Now every athlete who goes into training and competes in the games is disciplined and exercises self-control in all things. They do it to win a crown that withers, but we do it to receive an imperishable crown that cannot wither. Therefore I do not run without a definite goal; I do not flail around like one beating the air just shadow boxing. But like a boxer I strictly discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached the gospel to others, I myself will not somehow be disqualified as unfit for service.

A Directional Dream

June 10th, 2017

In the opening part of this dream I was walking nearby Iolani School pondering what the Lord wanted me to speak on for the coming Sunday message when the thought came to me, "What is investment?" As I continued to think about this question Michelle Mejia appeared. Knowing that she was leaving for Oceanside, California on June 12th I asked her how she was doing. She replied, "It's a very emotional time for me."

In the next scene Michelle and I walked onto the campus of Iolani School. The name Iolani means, "God of heaven" or "Bird of Heaven". As we entered the campus I was taken aback because of all of the changes-there were freshwater ponds everywhere.

We then walked along the Lower School campus until we spotted a flight of stairs that went up to Upper School campus. I led the way and we walked up to the next level. Once on the second floor we saw grassy fields everywhere. The dream then ended.
