I Praise God for Healing My Left Knee

I am an older gentleman, so my knees are showing signs of age. While moving boxes, I tripped and twisted my knee going down the stairs. This caused pain in my left knee.

I went through the healing line at MVCC. I wanted the pain to leave and have full function of my legs. Pastor Rob prayed that my knee be strengthened. This was not what I expected. I pondered this word and said I would try to exercise the muscles that move the knee. The knee was better and I gained some mobility, but the pain continued. I also asked Pastor Luis Salazar to pray. Spiritually, I could tell God was healing the knee.

Last Sunday at MVCC, Cullen Miyamoto was leading worship. He led one of those call-out songs where you move to the left and then you move to the right. So, I began moving my body and legs. I could see from the song lyric slides on the front screen that Cullen was going to call out to jump up for joy. I felt I could not do that because my knee was going to feel sharp pain if I jumped up. But I was so filled with joy, when he said to jump for joy, I jumped with everyone else as high as I could. I continued to jump up and down for joy. To my surprise there was no pain in my knees, only joy.

I was amazed and glad. Both my knees are strong, and my legs are back to being mobile without pain. I praise God for healing my knees through His power and His joy. God does hear us, and many times He brings us out of our pain through unexpected ways. God is faithful! Thanks be to God.
